D. 1861 Men and Brethren: This is a very solemn occasion which brings us of various creeds and parties together in this holy temple. God the Father Almighty is to be worshipped through Jesus Christ his Son our Lord, in beseeching devotions, in view of the troubled and threatening aspect of our national affairs. An inward consciousness guided by the teachings of Holy Writ has brought us, as a people, to make humble recognition of the Divine Sovereignty, that the Lord, who is God, visits individuals and nations with His just judgments for their sins; that to those who fear His name. He is both merciful and good. And from thousands of christian altars, when Sabbath worship fills the Sanctuary, prayers have been ascending to God, and daily prayers from millions of pious hearts, in behalf of our Country in this hour of her extremity.
