Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Teacher s Manual for the Andrews Lunar Tellurian To The Teacher: In the preparation of this Manual the writer has endeavored to treat the subjects presented, in a simple yet forcible manner, avoiding as much as possible, technical terms. The illustrations given outline the work that should be done in the class-room. The teacher should, and no doubt will supplement these illustrations in many ways, presenting the subjects treated, step by step in a thorough and yet attractive manner. The value of demonstration is no longer doubted, and in those schools where it is most used the best results follow This is pre-eminently true in geographical and astronomical work The Lunar Tellurian is designed to furnish the illustrations necessary to give the pupils a comprehensive understanding of the relationship, of the earth, sun and moon. It is so simple in construction that the average teacher may use it to advantage after a few hours study with the Manual. The teacher will find it advantageous to now and then assign a topic to one of the pupils, and require him to furnish clear and forcible demonstrations by use of the apparatus. The teachers attention is particularly called to the section in which Prof. E. Colbert, now scientific editor of the Chicago Tribune, and well known as a practical astronomer, treats the subject of Tides. His presentation is new, having reduced the abstract to the concrete. The author congratulates the readers upon being able to present an article from the pen of Prof. Colbert here acknowledges obligations to that estimable and scholarly gentleman. The writer acknowledges his obligations to M. Mac Vicar Ph.D., of the Michigan State...
