Summary: "Bill Manaris and Andrew Brown have created this marvelous book that will engage and inspire you to learn more about the science and art of creating music through computation. . Bill and Andrew offer an accessible path into a wonderful world that is both as modern as your new laptop and as ancient as Plato. In that world of music and mathematics, they construct a sandbox of computational tools. They encourage you to create, compose music, and play with patterns and data." --From the Foreword by Mark Guzdial, Georgia Institute of Technology " Making Music with Computers by Bill Manaris and Andrew Brown is a perfect accompaniment to programming music with the computer language Python. Written clearly, succinctly, and including many appropriate diagrams, this book is a must for anyone desiring to create their own applications for composing and making music. First rate in every way." --David Cope, Computer Composition Pioneer and Professor Emeritus, Music Department, University of California, Santa Cruz "This is an impressive text. Its material is accessible to a reader who may know little to nothing about either music...
