Some of it is man-made but it is having an unbelievable negative impact on many segments of society. And I know we are going to talk about wildfires today. But I would like to be on record asking you to consider such a hearing in the future. Thank you. HAIRMAN The C. Absolutely we will. In part I am responding in this hearing to the request from Mr. Walden and Mr. Blumenauer that we spend more time on the forestry related issues, and I will try my best to accommodate that request as well. Let me now turn and recognize the gentleman from California, Mr. McNerney. Mr. M N. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. C ERNEY My heart certainly goes out to the families who lost their homes in last weeks fire. Whether it is fires, hurricanes, earthquakes, any of these human tragedies are something that we feel deeply about and that we want to try to avoid as much as possible. Are these large fires the result of global warming Well, we cant really an-swer that definitively; can we Certainly the fires, the droughts, the large frequent storms are consistent with the theory of global warming. We will indeed see more of these large fires. We will see more hurricanes. We will see droughts. And it is incumbent upon us to understand what is going on here, to adapt and to mitigate, and I think that this hearing is...
