U6 2001 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)45816319 Subject: National security -- United States -- Accounting -- Evaluation. Excerpt: . . . Overview (3) implementing commercial practices for contract pricing, and (4) managing health care contracts. Without effective control over its contract management activities, the Department will continue to risk erroneously paying contractors millions of dollars and perpetuating other financial management and accounting control problems. Weak systems and controls also leave the Department vulnerable to fraud and improper payment. We have testified that the application of commercial best practices, such as the use of more cost-effective buying strategies for commercial spare parts, can improve acquisition and contracting processes and help reduce contract risk. Regarding specific operations challenges, the Support Department has to address inefficiencies in its support Infrastructure infrastructure. Again, while progress has been made in Inefficiencies this area, more needs to be done if the Department expects to reduce infrastructure costs and improve business operations through its reform initiatives. After the Cold War, the defense force structure and military spending...
