A6 2010h OCLC Number: (OCoLC)652432154 Subject: United States -- Appropriations and expenditures, 2011. Excerpt: . . . s the traditional ideal of democracy: that every citizen deserves the right to a basic education and job skills training; protection from illness and want; and an equal opportunity to reach ones highest potential. The Committee wrote this years bill in a period of great uncertainty. Although the economy is expanding again, far too many Americans still cant find a job, and the threat of a double-dip recession looms large. In the longer term, the national debt continues to rise to frightening levels. As the largest nondefense Federal appropriations bill being considered by Congress this year, this bill must respond to both sets of challenges, addressing todays hard economic realities while taking every possible opportunity to reduce waste, fraud, and abuse. Three themes permeate the Committees recommendation. First, this bill invests in critical programs that help people gain the skills they need to find jobs, protect workers from safety hazards, and provide a safety net for the neediest Americans. Second, the Committee recognizes that every taxpayer dollar should be used wisely; efforts to root out waste are bolstered, and duplicative and inefficient programs are eliminated. Finally, just because times are lean doesnt mean that innovation should cease. This bill launches several new initiatives that will leverage reform and transform key Federal services. Each theme is described more fully below. SUPPORTING ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND GROWTH Aid to Workers With the Nations unemployment rate at 9. 5 percent, programs that help Americans find jobs and upgrade their skills are critically needed. This bill continues and expands support for programs that provide important job training and education services...
